

HIN LIEBEN WEG LIEBEN

*when it happens to us, we notice it instantly.
then she can take us gently in her arms,
envelop us and create a smile in our faces.
at the same time, we can't control it. it can hurt.
when i love, i risk myself.*

HIN LIEBEN WEG LIEBEN is an artbook about love.

The book gives the reader two poems. One poem is about falling in love, the other poem is when love ends. The poems face each other and yet cannot be read at the same time. When one poem is unfolded, the book grows into the shape of a semicircle or helmet. The inside of the book abstractly depicts the brain waves that occur when falling in love and falling out of love.
